

Third Grade News You Can Use

January 22-25, 2019

What are we learning about in each subject?

Reading- Recognizing the Point of View of a narrator or characters

Grammar- Suffixes (-er, -est, -ed, -ing, -ness)

Shades of Meaning (ex: surprised»amazed»stunned»shocked)

Writing- Narrative: Write from a character's point of view

Math- Lesson 22: Measuring Liquid Volume (Liter/Milliliter)

Lesson 23: Measuring Mass (gram/kilogram)

Science - Georgia Habitats Research

Social Studies - Jamestown: The First Colony

SPELLING

| CIRCLE | TRIANGLE |
|--------|----------|
| turn | burst |
| curl | church |
| surf | blurt |
| sure | lure |
| nurse | urge |
| purr | churn |
| curve | purge |
| churn | curse |
| bury | turf |
| were | splurge |

Homework

(Due Friday)

Math Facts- complete nightly row of facts, please time your child for 1 minute and sign the bottom of each row (Tested Fridays)

Weekly Math Homework Sheet - Complete the review problems each night

Reading- read for 20 minutes each night & complete the weekly reading log

Spelling- Complete the spelling activity sheet each night

Your child's spelling words are either the triangle or circle list.

Test is February 1.

HOMWORK Help...

Spelling:

C- consonant

V- vowel

Sort: to make a list of words that follow the same pattern

ur, ure, ur_e, oddball

AR Info.

Student's AR goal is to earn 10 points by the end of the nine weeks with a passing average.

To be a GEM, students must earn 20 points

